O.M

No. 3/428-38/CB-37-50-2 Dated 2.5.50.

Subject:- Using the words "Govt." in Govt. orders and Notifications.

Reference:- 1) O.M. No. 998/CB. 253-49-2 dt. 4/2/50.
2) O.M. No. 757-766/CB. 37-50-1 dt. 18/4/50.

The attention of the Secretaries to Govt. is once again drawn to the above Official Memorandum. Inspite of the clear instructions that the use of the word "Govt." in Govt orders and Notifications of whatever kind to express executive action should be avoided it is observed that some of the Branches of the Secretariat are still using the same word "Govt." in Govt. orders and Notifications issued by them.

More particulars in Land Reforms Notifications.

The Secretaries to Govt. are therefore again requested to see that no such violation of instructions in this behalf occurs in future.

P.T.O.

~~and that the instructions~~ are strictly followed. Heads of Depts may also be requested to effect necessary changes in the ~~draft~~ statutory notifications etc ~~that they send to Govt for which~~ to be issued by them ~~are to be published in the Gazette~~.
